

U-BOAT SINKS BRITISH PASSENGER SHIP

REPORT VESSEL SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

SOME OF PASSENGERS AND CREW MISSING—ONLY AMERICAN ON BOARD RESCUED

Torpedoing of Liner Takes Place Off Irish Coast—Submarines Sink Ships of a Known Tonnage of 22,625—President Had Retired Before News Arrived—No One Attempts to Say Whether Sinking Will Prove Overt Act and Cause War.

Another trans-Atlantic passenger steamer plying between New York and the British Isles—the California—has been sunk by a German submarine. Like the Lusitania the steamer is declared to have been torpedoed without warning and some of her passengers and crew, including two women and several children, are said to be missing. The one American on board was rescued.

Sink Liner Off Irish Coast

The sinking of the liner took place off the coast of Ireland. The survivors among her 31 passengers and crew of 184 are being taken to Queenstown. The California was a vessel of 8,662 tons.

Including the California, British, Italian and Peruvian ships of a known tonnage of 22,625 have been sent to the bottom during the last 24 hours by German submarines. In addition one British steamer and two British steam trawlers and two fishing boats also have been sunk while the British steamer Azul, a vessel of 3,074 tons is reported as probably sunk.

British Forces Take Grandcourt

The capture by the British forces in France of the village of Grandcourt which is considered an important position in their operations toward Bapaume, together with a defensive work adjoining it, constitutes the greatest new gain for any of the belligerent forces.

Except for sharp fighting in Galicia along the Beresina river and in Lorraine, the fighting on the various fronts continues to be carried out by small parties and the big guns.

King George in re-opening the British parliament declared that the tenor of the recent German peace proposal indicated no possible basis for peace and re-asserted that Great Britain and her allies remained steadfast.

Consul Frost Report's Shaking

Washington, Feb. 7.—The steady stream of reports telling of the destruction of merchant ships by German submarines was brought to a climax tonight by a cablegram to the state department from Consul Frost at Queenstown announcing that the British passenger liner California had been torpedoed without warning and that an American citizen was among the survivors.

Whether this will prove to be the overt act to drive the United States into war no one would attempt to say tonight. President Wilson had retired when the news came and officials did not wake him. Late in the afternoon he had been informed of a message from Consul Frost, telling of the sinking of the California, but giving no details as to warning or the presence of Americans.

To Await Complete Report

The president undoubtedly will wait for complete reports before determining whether the time has come for him to go to congress to ask authority "to use any means that may be necessary for the protection of our seamen and of our people."

The consul's first report said there were "one death and thirty hospital cases" among the more than 200 people on board the liner. The second added that the survivors were landed at Queenstown tonight, among them being John A. Lee, of Montgomery, Ala., an American, and that some still were missing. Lee is supposed to have been a member of the crew.

The fact that the American escaped lessened in a degree the excitement created by the news, but only in a degree. More than a score of merchant craft have been sunk within the past 24 hours and fifty or more since the German proclamation went into effect Thursday. It is realized that if no citizen of the United States was among the victims it merely was a fortunate accident.

The California is the first big passenger steamer to be destroyed since the Arabia was torpedoed in the Mediterranean months ago.

The message from Consul Frost came at the close of another day devoted to preparations for the war regarded as virtually inevitable.

Sends Messages to Ship Owners. The most important step was the sending of telegrams by Secretary Lansing notifying American ship owners that the state department could not advise them as to whether their vessels should sail on voyages thru the war zone, stating that the rights of American vessels to tra-

POSTPONE SAILINGS OF AMERICAN SHIPS

Head of International Mercantile Marine Announced Decision After Receiving Message From Secretary Lansing

New York, Feb. 7.—Sailing of the American Line Steamships St. Louis and St. Paul now in the port of New York have been indefinitely postponed, it was announced here tonight by P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine.

After receiving the message from Washington, Mr. Franklin issued the following statement: "The American line announces that the sailing dates of the steamers St. Louis and St. Paul now in the port of New York have been indefinitely postponed. The following message was received today by telephone from Secretary of State Lansing:

"The government cannot give advice to private persons as to whether or not their merchant vessels should sail on a voyage to European ports by which they would be compelled to go thru the waters delineated in the declaration issued by the German government on Jan. 31, 1917.

It asserts, however, that the rights of American vessels to traverse all parts of the high seas are the same now as they were prior to the issuance of the German declaration and that a neutral vessel may if its owners believe that it is liable to be unlawfully attacked, take any necessary measures to prevent or resist attack."

The American Line officers now have taken under consideration whether to sail their steamers with prohibited waters or whether it is their duty to provide guns and gunners on their own account.

ASKS MONEY FOR AMERICAN RELIEF

Lansing Requests Emergency Appropriation of $500,000 from Congress

Washington, Feb. 7.—An emergency appropriation of $500,000 for relief, protection and transportation of American citizens in Europe was asked of congress today by Secretary Lansing.

The secretary did not mention specifically the situation in which many Americans in the Teutonic countries are placed by the break with Germany, merely calling attention to the continued extraordinary expenses of the state department on account of the war and suggesting that the money to be provided immediately in view of the important developments in the international relations of the United States within the past few days.

When the European war began congress appropriated $2,750,000 for relief of the thousands of Americans stranded abroad. Relief was discontinued more than a year ago except in the most meritorious cases.

Secretary Lansing also asked for the appropriation of $450,000 for the purchase of embassy property in Petrograd. The department already has informed the foreign affairs committee that the American embassy there is put to shame by those of other countries.

LOCATE DRIFTING MOTOR TANK SHIP

BOSTON, Feb. 7.—The motor tank steamer Daylight, which broke adrift from the tug Resolute, 100 miles south of Cape Sable, N. S., in a storm Sunday, was located today by the coastguard cutter Gresham and will be taken in tow for Boston as soon as the weather moderates.

A message from the cutter stated that the crew was aboard but that it had been impossible to get a line to the vessel because of the heavy seas.

The Daylight was built recently at Toledo, Ohio, for the Standard Oil Company and was proceeding in tow from Halifax for New York.

ORDER BOPP TO GIVE INCREASED BAIL

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—Franz Bopp, former German consul-general here and four aides, under prison sentences for conspiring against American neutrality, were ordered to furnish increased bail of $25,000 each today by Judge William H. Hunt, in the United States district court. Theodore J. Roche, Bopp's counsel, said it probably meant that Bopp would go to jail.

PRESS CONDEMNNS GERMAN ACTION

Lima, Feb. 7.—The Peruvian press is unanimous in condemning the action of Germany in respect of naval warfare. Several newspapers demand that Peru declare itself on the side of the United States.

BILL WOULD AUTHORIZE TAKING OVER OF SHIPS

Measure presented to Congress Carries Sweeping Provisions

President Would be Authorized to Take Over Vessels and Other Shipping Facilities—Prohibits Sales to Foreigners in Time of Emergency

Washington, Feb. 7.—Sweeping provisions for commandeering vessels and other shipping facilities in case of war or threatened war are contained in a bill introduced in the senate and house today and backed by a request from the administration that it be passed immediately.

The president would be authorized under the bill to take over any vessel owned by a citizen of the United States or by a corporation organized in the United States; any vessel building in the United States; registered under the American flag; purchased, leased or chartered by the federal shipping board or any other instrumentality including the docks, warehouses and other terminal facilities. A provision specifically prohibits sale of American vessels to foreigners or their transfer to foreign flags in time of emergency.

Under the present law the president may lay such a proposition by proclamation which action has been taken. The bill was drawn up after a conference last night between Secretary McAdoo, Chairman Denham of the shipping board and members of congress. It was presented in congress by Senator Fletcher and Representative Alexander.

A provision is contained that the property to be taken over may be seized without notice if the president believes the emergency warrants it. The federal government "thereafter shall pay the person interested the fair equal value of the property so taken."

For the purpose of the action it is provided that any shipping concern, a majority of whose stock is held or controlled by American citizens shall be classed as an American concern.

During the day a bill which might clear up some of the uncertainties regarding the status of war-bound vessels in American ports was favorably reported by the house judiciary committee. It would empower the president to put guards on them or take possession of them and remove their officers and crew in the event of war or threatened war.

FLETCHER TO LEAVE FOR MEXICO SATURDAY

Ambassador Desires Not to Attempt to Reach Capital by Water But Will go by Rail via Laredo

Washington, Feb. 7.—Ambassador Fletcher expects to leave Saturday for his post in Mexico.

Official reports to the state department have shown traffic conditions between Vera Cruz and Mexico City so uncertain that the ambassador has decided not to attempt to reach the capital by water but to go by rail via Laredo. Reports between the coast and capital have cut the railway and attack on trains repeatedly in the last two weeks, practically isolating Mexico City from Vera Cruz.

Private advices received today said Higinio Aguilar who was a general in Porfirio Diaz army was operating in the vicinity with a strong force.

It was also reported that Manuel Palaez recently defeated the Carranza garrison at Tamihua within a few miles of Tampico and occupied several other small towns near Tampico.

In spite of worse conditions in Mexico the state department's anxiety to get Ambassador Fletcher to his post has been increased by the rupture of relations with Germany, since it is recognized as a probability that an outbreak of hostilities would give rise to many problems that it would be desirable for an accredited diplomatic representative to handle.

GERMANS REPORT AIR RAID ON BRUGES

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—By wireless to Sayville.—An air raid on Bruges was reported in this evening's supplementary army headquarters report. Sixteen Belgian children were the victims, together with one woman, but no military damage was done, the statement declares. The text reads: "It is officially reported from all fronts that there was only fighting activity of limited character. An English squadron made an attack on Bruges. Thru a hit on a school one woman and sixteen Belgian children were made victims. No material damage was done."

SEND PEACE GREETING TO GERMAN WOMEN

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Miss Jane Addams, chairman of the Woman's Peace Party, has sent a peace greeting to Anita Augsborg, German secretary of the International Committee of Women for Permanent Peace. The message, made public today, was:

"Many American women join with the section for the United States of the International Committee of Women for Permanent Peace in sending messages of good will to our European sisters and share the hope that war may yet be averted."

SENATE FORMALLY APPROVES BREAK

Adopts Resolution Endorsing Action of President Wilson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—President Wilson's severance of diplomatic relations with Germany was approved formally today by the senate. By a vote of 78 to 5 the senate expressed confidence in the president's course, adopting a resolution submitted by Chairman Stone of the foreign relations committee endorsing the withdrawal of American Ambassador Gerard from Berlin and giving to German Ambassador Bernstorff his passports.

Senators who voted against the resolution were:

Democrats—Kirby of Arkansas and Vardaman of Mississippi. Republicans—Gronna, North Dakota; Works, California and La Follette, Wisconsin.

DEBATE PRECEDES VOTE

Five hours of debate preceded the vote but the only active opposition came from the five senators who stood out against the resolution when the roll was called. The ranking Republican leaders joined the Democrats in declaring their wholehearted support of the president.

The text of the resolution follows: "Whereas, The President has, for the reasons stated in his address delivered to the congress in joint session on Feb. 3, 1917, severed diplomatic relations with the imperial German government by the recall of the American ambassador at Berlin and by handing his passport to the German ambassador at Washington, and

"Whereas, Nothingwithstanding this severance of diplomatic intercourse the president has expressed his desire to avoid conflict with the imperial German government, and

"Whereas, The president has declared in this address that it is in his judgment an occasion should arise for further action in the premises on the part of the government of the United States he would submit the matter to congress and ask the authority of congress to use such measures as he might deem necessary for the protection of American seamen and people in the prosecution of their peaceful and legitimate errands on the high seas,

"Therefore, he it resolved, that the senate approves the action taken by the president as set forth in his address delivered before the joint session of congress as stated above."

I have presented the resolution, said Senator Stone, "in bringing the matter before the senate, because I think we should let the world know that we support the president of the United States whenever, acting within his constitutional power he speaks authoritatively for the country. There are senators who thought it would have been the better part of wisdom if the president had postponed the severance of diplomatic relations with Germany at least until Germany had committed some overt act offensive to this government and sufficiently aggravated to warrant a step so grave in possible consequences; but the president took a different view which with great ability, as strongly supported in his address before the joint session.

"I think it both wise and advisable for the senate to say officially that it accepts and approves the action of the nation's chief executive."

Kirby Speaks Against Approval Senator Kirby has his first address to the senate, an impassioned declaration that he would not support the resolution.

"I regard it as a preliminary declaration of war," he said, "if the resolution shall be voted upon favorably today. I do not believe the time has come in the history of this country when we shall side with Germany or when we shall side with the allies. The time has not come in my opinion when we should commit ourselves by the adoption of this resolution to any policy that the president may hereafter pursue. Under the constitution and the law he has no power to declare war, but he has in fact the power to plunge the nation into war and to make it necessary for congress to declare it, and he has almost done so."

Senator Lodge, ranking Republican member of the foreign relations committee led the discussion in favor of the resolution for the minority. He asserted that the president had

REPUBLICANS REFUSE TO END INVESTIGATION

Will Try to Prove Leak Originated with Newspapermen

Every indication is that Whipple is preparing to close his case.—Examining State Department Employees Who Aided in Transmitting Note.

Washington, Feb. 7.—In spite of members of the "break" investigating committee to bring the inquiry to a close Friday or Saturday, Republican newspapermen declared tonight they had just begun to investigate.

Until it is proved that the alleged leak originated with the two Washington newspapermen, J. Fred Barry and K. W. Price, who have admitted that they sent out warning messages, the Republicans say they will not agree to end the inquiry.

Every indication tonight was that Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the committee, was planning to close his case. He began today examining state department employees who aided in transmission of the note and is said to plan calling all the newspapermen to whom Secretary Lansing confided that a note was coming and employees of the government printing office. Other newspapermen and Mrs. Ruth Thomson Viscount also are to be called, but the committee is not convinced that any of them will give valuable testimony.

Official announcement was made tonight that Mrs. Viscount, who Thomas W. Lawson swore told him Secretary Tammany "and others" were involved in Wall street deals would testify tomorrow or Friday.

N. O. Messenger, of the Washington Star was brought into the inquiry to day and Thomas F. Logan of the Washington Post was summoned to appear tomorrow.

W. K. Hulse, a local broker testified today that for some years he has paid Messenger "not to exceed $100 a month" for the privilege of calling him on the telephone and asking about capital events.

DECIDE TO OPEN CONVENTION MAY 31

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 7.—Members of the board of governors of the Illinois State Bar association meeting here today decided to hold the annual convention of their organization May 31, June 1 and 2 but failed to decide upon a place for holding the meeting. Eight ballots were taken the votes being divided between Decatur and Danville. An attempt will be made later to agree upon a meeting place.

LOWDEN COMMUTES SCOTT'S SENTENCE

Negro Reprieved Ten Times After Being Sentenced to Death, to Serve Life Term

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 7.—After being reprieved ten times Elston Scott, Murphysboro negro, sentenced to death for murdering his wife, today was granted a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment by Governor Frank O. Lowden. Clemency for Scott was recommended by Trial Judge William C. Butler of Cairo and State Attorney William Schwartz of Jackson county who said that in their opinion the mental anguish Scott had undergone during his two years in jail not knowing whether he was eventually to hang or live had been sufficient punishment without the death sentence being imposed.

Scott's many reprieves were the result of a controversy between former Governor Dunne and Sheriff White who is said to have allowed one thousand persons to witness the hanging of Joseph Delberry another negro at Murphysboro. Governor Dunne demanded information as to how many would be allowed to witness the hanging of Scott. When the sheriff refused the information Governor Dunne began a series of reprieves, the last one extending to February 15.

AMERICAN REQUEST EMBARRASSES GREECE

LONDON, Feb. 7.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram company from Athens says: "The American communication to Greece requesting a definition of her attitude in view of the German submarine blockade has somewhat embarrassed the Greek government, which is sounding other neutrals before replying."

The correspondent in Athens undoubtedly refers to the suggestion of President Wilson that all neutrals follow the step of the United States in severing relations with Germany.

ANNOUNCE GIFT TO SCHOOL

Chicago, Feb. 7.—University of Chicago Medical school received a gift today of $100,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Max Epstein the latter a student at the university. This brings the fund within $200,000 of the $300,000, fixed as the sum to be secured before the project was begun.

PROHIBITION BILL WEATHERS ATTACK

Senate Defeats Amendments Offered By Dailey of Peoria

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The stateside prohibition bill came safely through an attack in the senate today and amendments by Senator Dailey of Peoria, who sought first to make it a "bone dry" bill and then to add a compensation clause were defeated, the vote being 33 to 13. An amendment offered by Senator Denver to exempt cities of more than 200,000 population from the operation of the law was defeated by a rising vote.

Representative Boyd introduced a bill that would prevent railways from delaying freight shipments. It proposes that freight must be moved at least 50 miles every twenty-four hours, and proposes a $5 per car forfeit to the consignee for every 24 hours delay.

Introduce Eugenics Bill. A eugenic marriage bill was introduced in the senate by Senator Austin to prohibit the issuance of marriage licenses except after a physical examination has been made by a registered physician and the applicants declared free from venereal diseases. The bill would provide for appeal and a hearing before a jury in case applicants were dissatisfied with the physicians' finding.

The house election committee today dismissed four contests for seats among them the contest of William H. Basel vs. Patrick W. Gallagher, involving a wet and dry fight in the 43rd Galesburg district.

TO REPORT LOWDEN'S BILL

Governor Lowden's bill proposing consolidation of state bureaus will be reported out to the house by the efficiency and economy committee Friday of this week, according to plans outlined tonight. Chairman Holladay of the committee called a meeting for tomorrow night at which time a revised draft of the bill will be ready for committee action.

Women would be prohibited from smoking cigarettes or using tobacco in any form at any cafe or other public place by provisions of a bill introduced in the Illinois house of representatives today by Representative Bernard J. Cliftonburg of Chicago.

A bill validating existing community high schools in Illinois, which were jeopardized by a supreme court decision, was reported to the house of the 50th general assembly for passage. The house education committee, after extended hearings at which school superintendents from many counties spoke, voted 15 to 5 in favor of reporting the bill out favorably.

A public hearing at which proponents of Representative Allan J. Carter's bill proposing an eight hour maximum day for women workers in Illinois will be heard was arranged today by the Illinois house industrial affairs committee for next Wednesday evening at the state house.

As Fount J. Andrews sums up the situation, "These are perilous days
for us who are on the water wagon.
The supply is daily getting shorter
and nothing but an early and generous rain will bring relief."

DOWNWARD AND UPWARD.

(Harrisburg Telegraph.)
About six weeks ago Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo issued his annual report, which predicted a deficit of about $185,000,000 for the fiscal year to end June 30, 1918.
Now he is out with a statement to the effect that $379,000,000 of additional funds must be raised for that year. It will be noticed that altho the Wilson administration revised the import taxes downward, every time they revise their estimates on expenditures they revise them upward.

TO PROTECT RELIEF SUPPLIES.

Assurances from the German government that there is no intention to interfere with the relief of civilian Belgians in northern France have been received by the Belgian relief commission. These assurances will have weight only as the Berlin government affords protection to the ships bearing supplies. It is not unreasonable to expect that this protection will be given if for no other reason that the receipt of supplies from the U. S. means that much less drain on the supplies of Germany. Thus there may be some selfishness mixed with Germany's generosity in this particular.

GENERAL ARMY STAFF NEEDED.

The Chicago Tribune and Post
have taken common ground in severely criticizing the congressional committee for rejecting the army's plan to create an efficient general
staff, the body by which any military campaign put on in this country must be staged. The Post compares this action to that of a congressional committee at the outbreak of the Civil war, wherein the then new-fangled breech-loading rifle was condemned and the northern troops were compelled to go into battle with the old-fashioned muzzle-loading
guns. That technical blunder added greatly to the length of the war and its cost in blood and treasure. So anything tending to increase the efficiency of the U. S. military department at this time would be likely to lighten the burden of any conflict
which the future may hold for this nation.

PATRIOTISM IS LIFE.

Some of the high class, broad-
minded pacifists in this country mistake the temper of the people. In this class is Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago. A fine example of pacifist misjudgment is furnished in an incident relating to Dr. Jones. He recently addressed a company of 2-500 students at a technical high school on "The Horrors of War." It was understood that following this address very few of the boys wanted to take military instruction. But the real test came a few days later
when army officers visited the school
and asked how many of the students would like to take a course in military training. There were 2500 boys students and 2500 of them raised the right hand to indicate that they wanted to take the course. Now, indeed, is a time when the patriotic sentiment of young men and those of more years is very evident in this country.

YEARS NOT BEST MEASURE.

Mrs. Winnie Henderson, who died
the other day at Champaign, had lived to the wonderful age of 116
years. Mrs. Henderson attributed her great length of life to two rules
she said to have scrupulously followed. "Keep much in the open air," and "Don't let anyone do for you what you can do for yourself."
These are indeed rules for simple living and Mrs. Henderson is entitled to a certain amount of glory for having worked out a long life philosophy so well.

But the second rule at least would not apply in every case and still
make for accomplishment and efficiency. It is all well enough for each individual to do all the work
possible but for some individuals
much of their value to the community in which they live consists in their ability to direct others how to work. It is given to few people indeed to live as long as this Champaign county veteran, but the influence and usefulness of a life is not measured wholly by years. It is what is done in the years of life that count in the final reckoning and not
the mere number of days and months.

THE FATHER OF SCIENTIFIC AGRICULTURE

In these latter years scientists who have given special attention to agriculture have been preaching the need
there is for a system of crop rotation—some plan to maintain the fertility of the soil. They have advocated this good work somewhat with
the air of pioneers, but history
shows that way back in the days of the Romans Cato an authority on agriculture, was advocating the very same thing that the scientists are doing today. Cato labored with the Roman farmers to get them to follow some regular plan of crop rotation.

Now it has remained for a writer
in a current magazine to show conclusively that George Washington,
first president of the United States,
was not only "the father of his country," but the father of scientific agriculture in this country. George Washington knew the necessity there was for maintaining the fertility of the soil. He knew that a system of crop rotation was necessary and a number of his letters and addresses prove that very interesting fact. Truly
there is nothing new under the sun, a statement quite consoling to the man of the present day who regrets that he can do nothing or say nothing original.

CITIZENS AROUSED OVER WATER SUPPLY STATUS

A committee of citizens will immediately undertake the work of enlisting the interest of Jacksonville
people in attending a mass meeting to discuss the water question. The purpose is to secure a large number of signatures to call for such a meeting, with the end in view of securing assurance from those who sign
the call that they will attend. Year after year Jacksonville has gone on "discussing" the water question and
many crises have come and gone.
For many years the city has been in the danger zone on the question of water supply and the failure to successfully solve this important problem has been a decided standing block in the way of development and growth.

A certain amount of "discussing"
is now necessary but the time has come to make this talk and discussion very brief and to actually "do"
something instead of talk. A serious situation is at hand and while it is earnestly hoped that by strict economy the time will be bridged
over without actual suffering or loss,
until relief comes from rain, the day
has come for temporizing.

We may pull thru this present distressing time but it certainly behooves the citizens of Jacksonville
to take up this question now and so develop the water department that a like situation cannot occur again.
This is a time for quick, decisive,
effective action—a time when the general proposition for entanglement
and betterment should not be defeated by any selfish motive or by any mere difference of opinion. Let's have this mass meeting soon and thresh out the whole problem thoroly.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

THE MODERN JAIL.

We've made our jail so snug and
warm impervious to cold and storm,
that Richard Roe is glad to dwell
all winter in his cozy cell. We've cleaned the walls and scrubbed the
floors, and whitewashed the ceilings,
bays and doors, till sanitation gurus
declare there are no harmful microbes there. The jail's inspected now and then by uplift dames and faddish men, who analyze the forks
and spoons and push their noses in the prisons. The parsons there distribute tracts, and scientists take useful facts; we all take books and magazines, and floral wreaths and kindred greens, and try to make the village jug more cheerful still, and still more snug. And from the window Richard Roe looks out upon the drifting snow, and sees the poor unlucky jays, who have not drawn
their sixty days, by weary efforts
strive to earn some grub to eat,
some coal to burn. "How foolish
are the sons of toil, who sweat to make the kettle boil, since luxury
like this they'd know, if they were vags," sighs Richard Roe.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

It is absolutely necessary
that every consumer of city
water use as little water as possible for immediate necessities,
as the water supply is practically exhausted for the present time.

Owing to the extreme cold
weather of the past several days the water in Morgan lake
being low, has frozen solid,
thereby shutting off the supply
from that source temporarily.

The wells at the north end
station are being pumped continuously but will not furnish
more than half the water necessary to supply the city. Unless consumers co-operate for a time it will compel us to shut
the water off in a great many places.

It was a merry party of young people that gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorrell of the Shiloh neighborhood on Tuesday ev-

and fun which permeated the gath-

ly that the machinists' ball will again be made an annual event and judging from the success of the function in Degen's hall Wednesday night, this proposal will meet with general favor.

A hundred couples were present
Wednesday evening at the ball given by Jacksonville Union No. 347, In-

first given by the machinists since 1893 did not detract from the pleasure of the event. In twenty-four

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS
It is absolutely necessary that every consumer of city water use as little water as possible for immediate necessities, as the water supply is practically exhausted for the present time.

Owing to the extreme cold weather of the past several days the water in Morgan lake being low, has frozen solid, thereby shutting off the supply from that source temporarily. The wells at the north end station are being pumped continuously but will not furnish more than half the water necessary to supply the city. Unless consumers co-operate for a time it will compel us to shut the water off in a great many places.

JOSHUA VASCONCELLOS, Commissioner of Public Property.

SENATE FORMALLY APPROVES BILL

taken grave action and that he felt it his duty to support him "to the utmost of my power."

Lodge Appeals for Unity
He also appealed to the senate against division in the crisis as the best guaranty to preserve peace. "My earnest hope," said Senator Lodge, "is that at this time personal feelings, political feelings and political enmities will all be laid aside. That we remember only that we are citizens of a common country, that we are all Americans and that our first duty is to stand together in this controversy which has unhappily arisen with another nation and let nation and the world know that the president speaks as he has spoken he has the congress of the United States and the people no matter of their race or origin behind him in the one simple character of American citizens."

Senators Vandaman, Gromna and Works declared that they could not support the resolution because they did not believe that the president's course was wise or justified by the facts. All feared also that it would lead to war.

LaFollette Makes No Address
Senator LaFollette made no address but announced he would do so later. All who spoke were emphatic in their support of the government if war should come.

One of the stirring addresses was delivered from the Democratic side by Senator Underwood who deprecated the presence of the resolution before the senate, altho he voted for it. He drew from Senator Stone the admission that the president had not been consulted regarding introduction of the resolution.

The president reached his room near the senate chamber while the debate was going on but left immediately without consulting any senators as soon as he learned what was under consideration.

Senator Sherman, Republican, pronounced the German declaration of ruthless submarine warfare the most unjustifiable proclamation to the nations of the world since the day of the Corsairs, since Drake and Froisher, when pirates sailed the seas.

Senator Borah, Republican declared the president's course was taken solely with a view to maintaining neutral rights. He warned against entering the war, declaring that entangling alliances thus inevitably would be the most disastrous thing that could happen to the country.

Forty three Democrats and 25 Republicans voted for the resolution. They were:

AUSTRIA AWAITS NEW DEVELOPMENTS

VIENNA, Feb. 7.—via London.—Government circles today were calmly awaiting new developments with regard to the submarine controversy with Germany. A high official said to The Associated Press that all the moves were in the hands of President Wilson; that the Austro-Hungarian government was seeking complications and would do nothing which would enable president to go before the American people with the claim that he had been driven to radical action.

The government's attitude appears to be of calm determination to follow the policy announced. The desire to continue on good relations with the United States is universal on the part of the press and the public.

Personal attacks on the president are not indulged in by Vienna newspapers tho the claim is made by many of the papers that President Wilson has finally unmasked himself and his cabinet and that contrary to being an ardent peace promoter, he is really a silent ally of the entente.

MAJ. GEN. GOETHALS SPEAKS IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 7.—Major General Goethals, builder of the Panama canal in an address before the St. Louis chamber of commerce today said that the present basis for collecting tolls on ships using the canal enabled ships of foreign registry to pass thru the waterway at an average toll of eleven percent lower than that paid by American ships of equal capacity.

The tonnage rating of foreign ships he said is different from that of the American ships of like carrying capacity, and this results in a discrimination against American ships.

The canal he said would be on a paying basis if the foreign ships paid tolls on the same basis as American ships.

EARL CURZON ALLUDES TO ACTION OF AMERICA

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Earl Curzon, lord president of the council, speaking in parliament today alluded to the action of the United States in severing relations with Germany and said:

"When, after patience almost unexampled, the United States thru its president refused to have further to do with an unclean thing, it justified the saying that the moral judgment of the world would be delivered against Germany." He declared that other neutrals would undoubtedly follow the example of America. Lord Curzon thought that the allies were approaching the real and terrible crisis of the war and that things will be accounted by the central powers surpassing in horror and monstrosity hitherto revealed.

CAMPAIGN DOES NOT ALARM ADMIRALTY

LONDON, Feb. 7.—"We are not alarmed at the sharpened submarine war. We knew it was coming and prepared for it. Time will tell how our confidence is justified."

This statement was made to the Associated Press today at the admiralty, and it was added:

"It must be remembered that one submarine may cruise whole days without getting a victim. For instance, on one day since Feb. 1 torpedoes were fired on eight of our merchantmen without getting a single hit. We have taken measures which we have every reason to believe will frustrate the U-boat warfare. Of course it is obvious that we cannot reveal them—the daily reports of the decrease in sinking will be the best evidence of our success."

ORDERS FAVORABLE REPORTS ON BILLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Favorable reports were ordered by the house naval committee today on three administration measures which will be offered as amendments to the naval appropriation bill when it is to be taken up in the house again tomorrow for immediate passage.

WILL TRY TO AVERT STRIKE OF YARDMEN

Representatives of Chicago Railroads and Switchmen Will Confer Today

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Representatives of eighteen railroads entering Chicago and of switchmen employed by them will confer tomorrow in an attempt to avert a threatened strike of the yardmen. William L. Chambers, commissioner of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, arrived today and, according to George Hannauer, chairman of the railway general managers committee, formal notice of the threatened strike has been served on him and it was expected he would sit at the conference tomorrow.

Five thousand switchmen affiliated with the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, have voted to strike if their demands are not granted in respect to five grievances regarding discipline and operation. Mr. Hannauer asserted tonight that the roads had offered to submit the matter to arbitration either by a federal board or one chosen jointly, but the switchmen refused. "We will not arbitrate things that concern our life and safety," said James Murdock, vice-president of the brotherhood who arrived here today from Cleveland. "We must have assurances that we will be safe in our work."

Replying to a question as to whether a strike would immediately follow failure to reach an agreement tomorrow, Mr. Murdock said he could not see where anything could be gained by delay.

Representatives of both the men and the roads expressed the hope tonight that the difference might be settled amicably.

SPANISH NOTE PROTESTS AGAINST BLOCKADE

MADRID, Feb. 7.—via Paris.—The Spanish government's reply to Germany's submarine note is a firm and dignified protest. It declares that Germany's decision to close certain sea routes is outside of international law. It adds that if Germany hopes to have Spain's help to avoid more loss of life it must be understood that Spain, while ready to lend support to peace efforts cannot accept exceptional methods of war.

ELECTRICIAN TESTIFIES AT CONSPIRACY TRIAL

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—George Kuhlmeier, a member of the Electrical Workers' Union No. 134 of which Michael J. "Umbrella Mike" Boyle was business agent was a witness for the government today in its case against four union business agents and eleven Chicago manufacturers charged with conspiracy to boycott outside makers of electrical goods in favor of local manufacturers.

Kuhlmeier testified he was a member of a committee whose duty it was to get work for members of the union. A boycott was in force he said against a large eastern firm. Its goods were union made and he tried to get work for unemployed fellow union men in buildings where the firm's goods were contracted for.

"I took the matter before the union," the witness said, "but the members hooted me down and referred to Mike Boyle."

SWEDEN RESOLVED TO MAINTAIN NEUTRALITY

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 7.—via London.—The answer of the Swedish government to the note which the American minister, Ira Nelson Morris, delivered to K. A. Wallenberg, the foreign minister yesterday has not yet been communicated to Mr. Morris. But the Associated Press learned that Sweden is firmly resolved now as she has been from the first to maintain strict neutrality. While Sweden will protest against the tone of Germany's new blockade she will content herself with a protest and will take no step which could make it more difficult to maintain her neutrality.

Responsible statesmen declare that even if Sweden desired to follow the lead of the United States her situation would render this impossible. Sweden they assert is exposed to great possibilities on harm on either side and would be obliged to suffer great hardships without any sure prospect of concrete gain.

BRAZILIAN REPLY DESPATCHED TO BERLIN

Note Protests Against Violation of International Law Involved in the Submarine Blockade.

Rio Janeiro, Feb. 7.—The Brazilian reply to the German declaration of unrestricted warfare has been despatched to the Brazilian minister at Berlin, according to an official announcement.

According to authoritative information, the Brazilian note protests against the violation of international law involved in the submarine blockade and points out that such a blockade could, if effective, close the entire high seas, a situation, which could not be permitted. The note protests, by anticipation, against any hostile act from which a Brazilian merchant ship should suffer by virtue of the blockade and holds Germany responsible for such acts.

Dr. Lauro Muller, foreign minister, will confer again today with the representatives of other South American countries. It is understood that Chile and Argentina will refuse to adhere to the terms of the Brazilian note. Argentina is said to hold that the breach of relations between the United States and Germany has been delayed too long. Each South American Republic will make an independent reply to Germany but the pourparlers between the Latin American states will continue.

The Brazilian minister at Berlin has been instructed to make immediate delivery of the note to the German foreign office and the German minister here has already been informed of Brazil's position.

FEBRUARY BEGINNING AS MONTH OF WEDDINGS

Marriages in the City During First Week of Shortest Month Have Exceeded Average—Pretty Ceremony at Home of James Baker—Maynard-Crim Wedding Today—Other Wedding News

With the number of licenses in Morgan county during the first days of the month exceeding the average issued for such a time and with other marriages in near prospect, February, rather than June, October or December, seems to be the wedding month. A ceremony of interest to many Morgan county people took place Wednesday evening and this forenoon a well known Jacksonville couple will be married and will leave for a short trip.

White-Baker. A beautiful home wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of James Baker, east of the city, when his youngest daughter, Martinet Blair Baker, became the bride of Roy A. White, of Farmersville, Ill. Promptly at 5:30 o'clock the bride couple entered the parlor and after they had taken their place beneath a large fern canopy, the Rev. G. T. Wetzel, pastor of Salem M. E. church, pronounced the words which united the young couple for life. The couple were attended by Miss Fannie Boyd, a cousin of the bride, and by Perry Ellison of Farmersville, a friend of the groom. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Nellie M. Matthews.

The bride was arrayed in a gown of white crepe de chine with silver trimmings and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her bridesmaid wore blue silk mull, trimmed with satin, and her bouquet was of white roses also.

After the ceremony a two course luncheon was served and when the wedding cake was cut the tokens were received as follows: ring, Miss Lena Kaylor; key, Miss Sadie Martin; dime, Clifford Davis, and needle, Herbert Strube. The house was charmingly decorated in green and white. The bride received a large number of handsome gifts, among them a silver set from the class at Salem Sunday school of which she is a member. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Albert White, parents of the groom, Miss Zeta White, Mr. Eliason, Ray Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fuchs and Miss Blanche Bonnett of Farmersville, Mrs. Henry Welborn and son Ernest of Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brokaw and Miss Eula Davis of Jacksonville.

Maynard-Crim. This forenoon at 9:30 o'clock will occur the marriage of Charles M. Maynard and Miss Vera Crim. The ceremony will be said at the home of the bride, 396 West College street by the Rev. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace M. E. church, of which Miss Crim is a member. Relatives only will be present.

Shortly after the ceremony the young people will leave for Monmouth and for the next few days will visit at the home of Prof. Milton Maynard, of the department of English at Monmouth college. On their return to Jacksonville they will have residence on East College avenue, in apartments already furnished.

Both young people are well known in Jacksonville and news of their wedding will occasion many words of congratulation. The groom came to this city from Mt. Vernon, Mo., where he was born and reared. He was at that time engaged as a solicitor for a well known correspondence school. Previous experience in mechanical lines put him in position for steady employment here and for more than a year he has held an engineer's position at the plant of the Railway and Light Co. He is a young man of industry and good repute and in beginning married life will receive the hearty good wishes of many.

During her high school course and during a stay of more than two years in the business world, the bride has endeared herself to friends who esteem her not only for personal charms, but for her quiet, optimistic manner and womanly grace. The best in life she richly deserves and those who know her well will withhold nothing when extending their wish for a life of real happiness.

Meredith-Hofferkamp. A wedding of much interest to Jacksonville people took place in Springfield Wednesday evening when Miss Theresa Hofferkamp became the bride of D. DeWitt Meredith. The ceremony was said at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hofferkamp, 597 South Eighth street, with the Rev. Frank W. Allen, pastor of the First Christian church of Springfield, officiating. The ceremony was followed by a reception and wedding supper at the St. Nicholas hotel. Mr. Meredith is employed by the Chicago bureau of the United Press and after the reception the couple left for Chicago to make their home.

The bride is a cousin of Mrs. Charles Degen of West College avenue and of Mrs. P. J. Shanahan of West College street, both of whom were in Springfield Wednesday evening to attend the wedding.

CARD OF THANKS. We take this means of expressing our appreciation for the kindness extended at the death of our husband and father.
Mrs. W. H. Paschall and children.

REPORT GERMANY IS INTERNING ROMANIAN

Romanian Foreign Minister Telegrams Report to Roumanian Legation in Paris.

Paris, Feb. 7.—The Roumanian minister of foreign affairs telegraphed today to the Roumanian legation in Paris that Germany has begun to transport for internment in Germany all Roumanian males from 16 to 47 years of age, altho the French, Russians, Italians and Portuguese protected by the Spanish legation are being left in the country.

"This treatment," reads the telegram, "is because Roumania gave up to Russia the Germans in its power and that these were transported to Siberia. It is absolutely false that Roumania has ever delivered German subjects to Russia. It has not, then, been possible for them to be sent to Siberia."

"The German government itself counts so little upon the protest invoked that before announcing its decision to transport Roumanians to Germany it proposed to the Roumanian government the exchange of Germans interned in Roumania for Roumanians in Belgium."

"The Roumanian government can do nothing but protest against this new attack upon its rights by appealing to the universal conscience which at the proper time will aid Roumania in exacting all the compensations due her."

A HOME COAL SHAFT

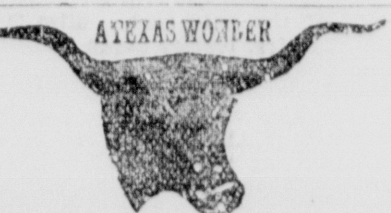

The present high price for fuel has revived the idea of working the abandoned coal shaft on Henry street in south part of the city which cost so much money in years gone by. It has several times been claimed that if the maximum price could be obtained for coal it would pay to work the thinner vein underlying this region. Messrs. Davidson & Strawn always insisted that they could have kept their east side shaft going under these conditions even with all the water they had to pump out.

There was lots of coal in the south side shaft but unfortunately the chamber went in a direction which sloped downward from the pump making pumping very expensive. Could the miners have worked in the other direction it would have been easier but through an error or oversight of the attorney employed the royalty in that direction wasn't secured and outside competition crushed out the home enterprise. Possibly the matter of using this shaft may be investigated.

LACK OF WATER RUINED HIM.

Wm. S. Lorton says he can testify to the evils of a shortage of water. Some years ago he had an ice and cold storage plant east of the East State crossing and was doing quite a business but the water for three years the city was unable to supply him with water and he was bankrupted by the misfortune.

Edward Stanley of Joy Prairie region was a traveler to the city yesterday.

CARRIER SERVICE HERE THIRTY YEARS

Delivery Service Established Through Local Post Office in 1887—Some Interesting Postal History.

Recently two well known citizens had an argument as to the date of the establishment of the free delivery service in Jacksonville. One citizen said it was thirty years ago and the other was of the opinion that it was several years later.

Here is the story gleaned from Postmaster R. I. Dunlap, Assistant Postmaster Thomas Harber and John Higler, veteran mail carrier.

The service was established July 1, 1887, during the first administration of Grover Cleveland and under the postmaster of L. W. Chambers. When the service was first established there was no civil service and the carriers were subject to change with change of administrations.

The Original Carriers.
The four original carriers were Edward Smith son of the late George W. Smith and brother of former deputy sheriff George Smith, Harry Milburn, brother of O. I. Milburn the present carrier, Ben Gordon and John Higler.

Each carrier was assigned an entire ward and there was no eight hour law. It was a case of leaving the office with a hundred pounds or more of mail and getting back when it was delivered, if that was the next day.

It was strenuous work and it was not long before some of the carriers fell by the wayside. The first to quit was Ben Gordon who carried only a few weeks. All of these men were appointed July 1, 1887. July 28, 1887, Harry Platt was commissioned. He and Mr. Higler are the only carriers of that period left.

During Benjamin Harrison's administration John Higler broke down under the work and was out of the service for two weeks. During part of that time he served as turnkey at the county jail.

The Civil Service Law.

It was during the Harrison administration that the civil service law was passed. Mr. Higler having recovered his health, was one of the first to take the civil service examination. Nine men took it and Mr. Higler was the only one of the nine to pass. He again entered on his duties which he has performed continuously since.

It is impossible to get the rotation of carriers in the early days of the service. However, John Murphy at one time carried mail. George Smith carried for a time after his brother retired. Then came Joseph McCullough, W. M. Carroll, Clifford Van Zandt, Fred Montgomery and others whose names cannot now be recalled. The late Benjamin Pyatt began in 1890 as a substitute and O. I. Milburn entered the service as a substitute in 1893.

When the service was first established no provision was made for a substitute. For several months Mr. Higler and those associated with him used to pay a substitute out of their salaries. Afterward this was remedied.

To show to what extent the service has grown in thirty years it is only necessary to give a few figures of comparison. There were four city carriers in 1887. In 1917 there are in regular service 12 letter carriers, one carrier exclusively for parcels and eight rural carriers. Capt. Kirby one of the first mounted carriers entered the service December 1, 1891.

MASS MEETING TO DISCUSS WATER CASE

SITUATION DEMANDS EARNEST ATTENTION OF CITIZENS

Conference Held Wednesday Results In Appointment of Committee to Study City Cuts off Supply of Railroads—All Consumers Urged to Economize.

As the result of a conference held Wednesday afternoon at the city hall a committee of citizens was named to circulate a petition urging upon the people of Jacksonville that a mass meeting be called to discuss the water situation. It is the hope that at such a meeting ways and means may be devised for reaching some satisfactory solution of the very unfortunate condition which now presents itself.

The motion for the appointment of such a committee was made by M. R. Fitch, with a second by Fount J. Andrews, and the committee as named includes M. R. Fitch, F. J. Andrews, Dr. J. R. Harker, Frank Byrnes and John W. Larson. This committee will probably be active today in the circulation of a petition which it is expected will be signed by business men and citizens generally, urging that a mass meeting be held.

The conference Wednesday afternoon was of an informal character mentioned and also by Mayor Rodgers and was attended by the men already mentioned, Commissioners Cox, Vasconcellos and Widmayer, John J. Reeve, H. Jay Rodgers, E. M. Henderson, E. H. Gray and others.

Supply Conditions Explained.

In answer to various questions Mr. Vasconcellos, who is in charge of the department of public property, explained the supply situation. As stated in the Journal yesterday, it is not possible now to pump any water from Morgan lake and the supply from the north side wells is only a little more than half of the present consumption. Mr. Vasconcellos stated that he had notified the Wabash and the C. P. & St. L. railroads that they would be cut off tomorrow, that he had requested the ice plants to stop water consumption and that he had notified the state institutions, various schools, colleges and business houses that every effort must be made to cut down the amount of their daily consumption.

Mr. Vasconcellos referred to his annual report for the water department, in which he recommended putting down a 12 inch well and moving the pump from No. 3 well to the new one. He explained that even if the well could be in operation that the relief afforded would be only a part of that needed. The commissioner said that for any permanent relief that a number of wells should be sunk at the north side station, a larger main laid from that station and the storage capacity of Morgan lake increased. He would favor the building of a new dam at the lake with a filter equipment, and the dredging of the lake to increase the storage capacity. Every one of the men present took some part in the discussion and it was very clear that they were all deeply impressed with the acuteness of the present situation.

Bond Issue Favored.

A lack of water endangers public health and greatly increases the likelihood of fire losses. It was pointed out that to accomplish any improvement in a large way, that the city must secure money thru a bond issue. It was the unanimous sentiment of the men present that the time is ripe to urge upon the people the necessity for the raising of money thru a bond issue and expending it upon water development. The city now has hundreds more consumers than was the case a few years ago and this number could be greatly increased if a larger water supply were available and one of good quality.

Estimates made make it very certain that the revenues could be increased at least $5,000 annually if more water was available. An improved pumping plant, with power supplied from the central station would mean a large saving in operation. In this way the saving effected would be considerably more than the interest on a bond issue.

It was the suggestion of Mr. Vasconcellos that an engineering expert be secured to go over the whole situation here and make a report especially as to the quantity of water which can probably be secured from the north side wells and as to the best kind of equipment to be installed. Whether or not an expert is secured at this time for an estimate, the city officials and the citizens expenditure of money authorized thru a bond issue, that the expenditures will be made with the advice of an expert engineer. It was pointed out that other bond issues have failed because citizens favorable to the proposition have stopped with the mere expression of their approval and have done nothing to create public sentiment or to direct interest in the matter. As F. J. Andrews expressed it, what is needed in the present instance is for business men not to get behind the proposition and stay behind it, but to get ahead of the proposition and lead the way.

The Mayor's Position.
Mayor Rodgers' position is that there is no use planning for betterments and enlargements of the water department unless it is known that the funds will be available for carrying out the work planned. Mr. Widmayer told of a visit to the Springfield water plant where an abundant supply is secured from wells very similar to the ones at the north side station here. Mr. Cox expressed himself as in accord with the plan, which contemplates the securing of money thru a bond issue and the expenditure of this money for the necessary work of increasing the number of wells and purchasing additional machinery, the general plan to be outlined by an experienced engineer.

Supt. Gray of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company expressed the belief that employees of the utility company would show a hearty interest in favor of improvement. The light company, he said, was directly interested in the water question, just as is every citizen and property owner.

As previously indicated, the men present had a clear understanding of the critical condition which exists and members of the committee readily agreed to busy themselves in securing the attention of citizens and asking them to attend a mass meeting to be held at an early date. This committee will visit houses in the business district and then a general invitation will be issued urging citizens to attend a mass meeting at the Court house and to discuss the water problem and take such action as may seem best to secure a permanent supply.

RAILROADS SHUT OFF.

The order from the water department shutting off the Wabash and the C. P. & St. L. roads will mean a saving of about 100,000 gallons a day. Just what can be saved by a general effort of economy on the part of all consumers is uncertain, but an effort will be made to have every customer cut down the amount of water used to some extent. Unless rain comes within the next few days not more than fifty to sixty percent of each day's supply will be available and it will be inevitable that certain lines of business and probably the public schools will have to be closed down temporarily. The state institutions all depend on the city for water and their needs are the first claim. The special committee appointed will probably start out with their mass meeting petition some time today.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

It is absolutely necessary that every consumer of city water use as little water as possible for immediate necessities, as the water supply is practically exhausted for the present time.

Owing to the extreme cold weather of the past several days the water in Morgan lake being low, has frozen solid, thereby shutting off the supply from that source temporarily.

The wells at the north end station are being pumped continuously but will not furnish more than half the water necessary to supply the city. Unless consumers co-operate for a time it will compel us to shut the water off in a great many places.

JOSHUA VASCONCELLOS, Commissioner of Public Property.

These Are the Men Who Make Clothing Cost More

THE millions of fighting men of Europe are wearing part of the wool which ordinarily goes into your clothes, and their garments are burned every few weeks for sanitary reasons. This has caused an alarming shortage of wool in the world. England has placed an embargo on all wool besides buying millions of dollars' worth of wool and woolsens from America.

Many woolen mills are closing down because they are unable to get Australian wool. We have taken the unusual precaution to have all our spring shipments arrive during January and the early part of February. Also a large part of staple lines for next fall and winter are now in our possession stored in our surplus stock rooms, so as to insure our patrons the very best merchandise at a minimum cost.

DR. A. A. TANNER WEDDED WEDNESDAY IN DENVER

Bride Was Mrs. Nancy L. Bonney for Years an Active Worker in His Church—Will Spend Several Months Studying Religious and Philanthropic Problems in South.

The announcement of the marriage of Dr. Allan A. Tanner and Mrs. Nancy Little Bonney in Denver Wednesday will come as a thro surprise to the Jacksonville friends of Dr. Tanner. The ceremony was marked by the utmost simplicity as it was only after the resignation of Dr. Tanner from the pulpit of the First Congregational church in Denver a few months since, that the long and close friendship between Dr. Tanner and Mrs. Bonney developed into the closer relationship resulting in the marriage Wednesday.

Mrs. Tanner is the daughter of Mrs. Rosa R. Little of Denver and belongs to a well known Maine family. For a long period in Denver she was the nearest friend of the late Mrs. Tanner and manifested the most loving devotion thru the long years of Mrs. Tanner's illness. Dr. Tanner's bride has been prominent in the life of the First Congregational church. For six years she was the president of the Ladies' Aid society, accounted one of the most remarkable philanthropic organizations in Denver. Her activities were not confined to that society and there is hardly a helpful work in the great city of Denver in which her influence has not been felt.

Will Study in South.

When Dr. Tanner resigned the pastorate of his church some months ago in order to devote himself more largely to certain lines of philanthropic work, hoping to bring about a better understanding between labor and the church, every effort was made to bring about a change in his plans. The church has a large membership and they with one accord offered an increase in salary to provide an assistant pastor and to branch out in any department of church work in which Dr. Tanner would lead. But the pastor had "counted the cost" before he announced his resignation and adhered to his determination to give up the active church pastorate with the sincere hope of being able to accomplish more in a larger field, possibly thru the press and on the platform. In some further preparation for this work Dr. and Mrs. Tanner will spend some time in study in Galveston and a number of other cities. Mrs. Tanner is so genuinely interested in some of the problems which have occupied Dr. Tanner's mind thru years past, that she will be indeed a helpful co-worker and an inspiration.

Seeks Service in Large Field.

Dr. Tanner has certain definite ideas of what can and should be accomplished along certain lines of philanthropic and sociological reforms. He has the best equipment which comes from a real heart interest in the problems he is seeking to solve, and so with a great heart and a great mind, freed from the cares of church direction, he is now ready to render service in a larger field. As previously stated, Dr. and Mrs. Tanner will spend some months in southern cities and their permanent place of residence has not been made known, although they will likely maintain a home in Denver.

One Case Only Has Developed and All Precautions Will Be Taken—Other News Notes.

Winchester, Ill., Feb. 7. The schools were closed here this afternoon when it was discovered that Blanche Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, was suffering from scarlet fever and that a number of grade children had been in her company as recently as Saturday in a party at the Lyric and consequently were exposed. The closing order came as a precautionary measure, that the exposed children may not mingle with others and that an epidemic may have no chance to develop. Sessions will be discontinued for ten days. Public gatherings will not be held during this period.

Mrs. Frank Berry returned Wednesday from an extended visit in Howard, Ia., where she was the guest of Fred Martin and family.

Third Lyceum Number.

Edward Kemp with his lecture "Seven Oaks" pleased a good sized audience Wednesday evening at the Christian church. No children were allowed to be present by reason of the health order but as it was, the church was comfortably filled. HOME FOR A LITTLE CHILD.

The story in the Journal yesterday about the little Ida Virginia McNeal at Passavant hospital attracted the special attention of Miss Faye Rodgers. She had recently had a letter from a cousin living in Detroit, in which the writer expressed a wish to adopt a little child and had further told of her own financial struggle. She immediately made an attempt to secure a child from a Detroit institution for foundlings. There she found a child who exceeds the supply. So Miss Rodgers had the idea that she might secure a child for her cousin's home here in Jacksonville. A telegram was sent to the Detroit relative and she is expected here within a short time to see the baby.

Miss Rodgers was only one of a group of persons who made application at the hospital for the privilege of taking care of the little stranger.

LIVESTOCK BOARD RECORDS IN REVIEW

Charges Made That Irregularities Have Been Costly to Cattle Owners.

Promises of a revival of the stockyard scandal which began in the courts six weeks ago came today with the assertion by members of the attorney general's staff that irregularities existed in the operation of the state live stock commission. Following the injunction granted by Judge Windes in the Circuit Court six weeks ago, restraining the state commission from selling condemned cattle in the stockyards to certain rendering firms, live stock commission merchants assert they have saved cattle owners $900,000.

Condemned cattle at the Chicago stockyards have a standard value in fats, hides and other by-products, and as had been the custom, until six weeks ago, for the state live stock commission to direct where these cattle shall be marketed. The commission supervised the disposal of the condemned cattle for the owners instead of allowing the owner or his representative to sell wherever they chose. Eighty commission men who sympathized with the owners took over this work with the issuance of the injunction and kept close records on results.

They declare now that they have saved on an average of $5 a head for the cattle owners. First Assistant Attorney General James H. Wilkinson of Chicago, by order of Governor Lowden, now has possession of the books of the live stock commission, and is making a thorough investigation.

It is alleged that queer charges were made by the commission for "detaching." Other interesting charges are $200 for legal advice, taxicab rides or commission members and $5 for a new hat for one S. Strauss.

MISS FAIRBANK TALKED ABOUT ALASKA

Interesting Address Given Wednesday Night at Westminster Church.

At the prayer meeting service at Westminster church Wednesday evening Miss Maria Fairbank gave an interesting talk on Alaska. It has been the custom at Westminster for some time to have some missionary matters portrayed by stereopticon views on the first Sunday of the month with a talk by the pastor. The subject is presented at the prayer meeting service and the stereopticon views and lecture given on the following Sunday.

Miss Fairbank was a visitor in Alaska last summer and the Rev. E. B. Landis secured her to tell of Alaska Wednesday evening. There was an unusually large audience and the speaker was heard with close attention.

The speaker told of her trip to Alaska which was made over the Canadian Pacific to Vancouver, where ship was taken for Alaska. The trip was by the inner passage. Many interesting things were told of the kind of country the northern possession is.

Miss Fairbank told of the very dark hue of the grass and foliage. The vegetation the speaker said was wonderful in its growth and not at all what one would expect to find so far north. She told of the immense glaciers, there are two kinds of glaciers, what are known as live glaciers and dead glaciers. The speaker also visited Dawson and went over the same route traveled by Miss Georgia Osborne and Mrs. Kaiser who made the trip in the early days of the gold rush. Miss Osborne and Mrs. Kaiser made the trip by dog team and on foot while Miss Fairbank made it in a parlor car.

A visit also was made to Juneau, the capital of Alaska. At one place Miss Fairbank talked with a hotel keeper. When the hotel keeper learned she was from Jacksonville, Ill., he surprised her greatly by asking her if the Dunlap hotel was still in existence. He spoke of the beautiful location of the Dunlap and remembered the flowers at the old Devesse home opposite the hotel. He had formerly been a traveling salesman and told Miss Fairbank that he always tried to reach Jacksonville to spend Sunday. Other things as to the manner and customs of the people were told in an interesting manner and the talk proved most entertaining in every particular.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

Foley Kidney Pills Simply Drives The Cause of it Out of Your System

Lame back, stiff, swollen, aching joints, and rheumatic pains are the result of weak, sluggish, inactive kidneys. In this condition, they cannot keep the blood that feeds your body free of the impurities that poison you and cause these painful symptoms.

Foley Kidney Pills are so strongly advised and recommended for these troubles because of their direct and beneficial effect on the kidneys, bladder and urinary system; and acting through these important organs, on the health of the entire body. Foley Kidney Pills tone up weak and sluggish kidney action, ease a painful and irritable bladder, stop rising at night, remove the cause of backache, lame back, stiff joints and rheumatism, due to imperfect kidney and bladder action.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Wood of Morrill, Maine, Box 18, R.F.D. 2, were both rescued from the effect of weak, sluggish, imperfect kidney and bladder action by the use of Foley Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Wood writes: "Foley Kidney Pills helped me so much. I found relief as soon as I began taking them. My husband is also much benefited, and feels so much better since taking Foley Kidney Pills. He was so lame he could not stoop, had to get down on his knees to pick up anything, so lame he was in his back and hips."

I remain always your well wisher.

Mrs. Frank P. Wood.

Foley Kidney Pills are sold everywhere in 50c and $1.00 sizes. The $1.00 size is the more economical buy, as it contains 2 1/2 times as many as the 50c size.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

1830

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society.)

The Journal of March 30, 1879, contained one of "a series of local epitomes," written by Ensley Moore. It was headed:

"NEARLY FIFTY YEARS AGO"

No. 5 of a Series of Local Epitomes Likewise the Last of This Series."

It read as follows:

In January, 1830, Andrew Jackson was President of the United States, John C. Calhoun vice president, Ninian Edwards was governor of Illinois, Jno. M. Robinson and were United States Senators, Gen. Joseph Duncan, of Jacksonville, Illinois' only representative in Congress.

Dennis Rockwood was recorder or circuit clerk of Morgan county, A. Wilson probably probate judge, Sam P. Matthews sheriff, Wm. Jarred, coroner, and Murray McConnell, public administrator.

Jacksonville was laid out in 1825, by Thos. Arnett, Isaac Dial, and the County Court. State street took its name from the state road which ran along the top of the ridge, running upward Westwardly from the Mainvalle.

In 1830 the State of Illinois had a population of 155,447, and Morgan county then included what is now Scott and Cass counties, making about 1114 square miles.

By way of contrast, it may be interesting to observe that Chicago was then unknown as a town or city. In 1829, the state sent Mr. Jas. Thompson to Ft. Dearborn for the purpose of making an official survey of the site, for a town. His map is dated Aug. 4, 1830. Thompson found seven families only outside of the fort. Claiborne was a butcher, Dr. Wolcott, U. S. Indian Agent, John Miller kept a log tavern, John Kinzie was in the fur trade, Caldwell, a conciliated Indian chief, was garrison interpreter. No store is mentioned as being outside of the fort.

Gov. Ford says that: "By 1830, only two steamboats ran up the Illinois river."

The steamboats probably belonged in the port of St. Louis, Mo., which town was then the great point in the West. St. Louis was a town of several thousand inhabitants, the depot of Indian trade to a great extent, a steamboat transfer point, and had at least one newspaper, the Republica, established in 1808.

In 1821, Morgan county contained only 21 families; in 1825, its population was 4,052; in 1830, it was 12,281.

In the county there were "30 mills for sawing and grinding, propelled by animal or water power, several large steam mills are in operation, and two more have been commenced and will be finished the present year" wrote Peck, in 1834.

Land was worth about $8 to $12 per acre, and villages were about to spring up all about Jacksonville.

Some of the villages "sprang up" and some sprang down, as for instance, Geneva, west of town on the Naples road.

Vandalia was the capital of the state, and what we call the Waverly road was then the "Vandalia road."

Naples was a lively town, and Meredosia was "a town-site, landing, and place of considerable business," six miles above Naples, both being in Morgan county.

Much of the mercantile business of Jacksonville passed thru Meredosia. "Above the town is a singular bayou from whence its name," which in French orthography, would be Marais D'Ogee.

In 1828, the first year of steamboat navigation, there were nine boats arrived at Naples; in 1829,

three; and in 1830, twenty-four.

The land office of this district was at Springfield. Wm. L. May was Register and John Taylor Receiver, as nearly as we can determine the date.

Alton, Vandalia, Galena, Jacksonville, Springfield, Shawneetown, Quincy and Peoria were among the principal towns of the state, and ranked as to population and business establishments about in the order named.

The "Western Observer" was published every Saturday, by Jas. G. Edwards, terms $2.50 per year, if paid in advance.

In the Kaskaskia "Democrat" was published an interesting article on "Silk in Illinois," which will doubtless interest many of our citizens who subsequently speculated in that line, of fine spun theorising.

"Mrs. Ellis' school will open on Monday, 20th Sept., tuition for quarter, elementary branches, $3; higher branches, $1; boarding, $1; washing 25 cents. Needlework is carefully taught, the French language is spoken in the family, members of the school will have access to an excellent library without additional charge," says an advertisement in the "Western Observer," the ad bearing date of Sept. 17, 1830.

Dr. D. Rice of Lewistown, advertises in the same sheet for the purpose of reaching people residing in or about Lewistown.

Proposals also appear "for publishing by subscription, in the town of Palestine, Ill., a newspaper to be entitled 'The Illinois Chronicle and Literary Gazette,' to be edited by E. S. Jenny, etc., etc." Signed by Caddington, Campbell and Jenny. Where is Palestine, Ill. now?

David E. Ayers says: "The subscriber has just received, principally from Philadelphia, the following articles, viz: (Then follows the list of paints, glass, drugs and patent medicines, wholesale and retail.)"

The Jacksonville School Association having gone to pieces, Wm. Seawall advertises his school to open under his own direction; terms $2.50 per quarter.

"Apprentice wanted at this office."

Knapp and Pogue, of Beardstown, offer flour barrels, and wish to employ "sober, industrious" coopers.

Aug. 14. Dr. Sam Spencer, recently from New York, is to be found at Naples.

"Drugs, medicines and wines, of the best qualities, will be constantly kept, and sold cheap for cash or country produce."

Lyman A. Scott offers his farm eight miles north of Jacksonville, for sale.

Murray McConnell signs an administrator's notice.

McGill & Ingram, of St. Louis, are going to shut up business, and want people to pay their debts due the firm.

A Chancery term of Court in November is announced by D. Rockwell, clerk.

John York Sawyer, proposes to publish "The Western Plough-Boy", an agricultural paper, at Edwardsville.

A. & M. Collins advertise, most at length, their stores in Naples.

Instruction commenced in Illinois College, Jan., 1830, with a class of nine, and a Freshman class was entered in 1831, graduating in 1835.

The first Trustees of Illinois College, were S. D. Lockwood, Wm. C. Posey, J. P. Wilkinson, Theodor Baldwin, Mason Grosvenor, E. Jenny, Wm. Kirby, J. M. Sturtevant and Asa Turner.

On the first Sabbath in April, 1830, Rev. Jno. M. Ellis was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville.

Mr. Ellis resigned his pastorate about 1832 (1831) but his family remained in this village until the terrible Cholera year of 1835.

"A meeting of gentlemen favorable to the establishment of a female seminary in Jacksonville, was held at the home of Mr. J. P. Wilkinson, Sept. 29, 1830."

Dr. J. T. Cassell made his first tour Jacksonville in 1830, and bought two lots on the west side of the Square, for $200 each. One of them is now occupied by Durfee & Son's store.

Capt. John Wyatt was a prominent citizen, who farmed about six miles south east of town. He was the father of Col. Wm. J. Wyatt, now also a prominent citizen.

Col. Joseph Morton took the census of Morgan county this year, 1830.

The court house, which was taken out of the south west quarter of the City Park in 1870, was accepted from the contractor, Sept. 8, 1830. It cost about $4,000; our present court house cost about $204,000. A slight difference.

The contracts for the "Old Court-house" were made March 14, 1829, by Joseph M. Fairfield, John Wyatt, Samuel Rogers, Co., Commissioners. Garrison W. Berry, and Henry Robley took the brick work for $1720, Rice Dunbar and Henry Robley the carpentering for $1350, besides minor contracts to others. Henry Blanford, Isham Daltm, John Chalton, and Jas. Hurst were also employed in constructing the building.

The first "brick" in the county as at present bounded. To meet the expense of this improvement and for county revenue, a tax was levied on all slaves, indentured or registered negro or mulatto servants, on pleasure carriages, distilleries, or stock in trade, on livestock, and all personal property, except furniture.

"The old jail" was built of hewed timbers, each about one foot square, every wall was made double. This jail was followed by another, built in 1833, succeeded in time by the present one on South Main street.

Minors were "bound out" until of age, when thrown upon the county for support, and in 1830 there was "poorhouse" "poor farm" nor

Wm. Gilham and Jas. Green and

Wm. Wood were elected County Commissioners in this year.

No trouble with Indians is known of as occurring in Morgan county, but in 1829-30 the trouble began along the Rock river, which culminated in the Black Hawk war, to which many of our citizens went in 1831.

Venison was a favorite article of food, and during the "Deep Snow" one man captured thirteen deer in one day—to the best of our remembrance.

Marshal P. Ayers came to Morgan county in 1830, and Augustus E. Ayers was in the same party.

Samuel Bateman came the same year, as did Robt. Caldwell, Edward Craig, Jas. Craig, J. R. Chambers, Jesse Gunn, A. S. Gunn, Elijah Henry, George Lott, Harrison Osborne, A. C. Patterson, F. H. Patterson, Preston Spates, John Spres, J. J. Shepherd, W. D. R. Trotter, S. Turner, Elizer Wolcott, Dudley Young and Wesley Masters.

But the great event of the year came, or began in December. "In the interval between Christmas of 1830, and 1831, snow fell all over Central Illinois to a depth of three feet on a level, then came a rain with weather so cold that it froze as it fell, forming a crust of ice over the three feet of snow, nearly, if not quite strong enough to hold a man, and finally, over the crust of ice, there were a few inches of very light snow. The clouds passed away and the wind came down upon us from the North West with uncommon ferocity. For weeks, certainly not less than two weeks, the mercury in a thermometer tube was not, on any one morning higher than 12 degrees below zero. This snow fall produced constant sleighing 'or nine weeks.' This was the 'Deep Snow' and many of our old settlers still recall it as a thing of their own experience.

These epitomes, written in 1879, began with one on 1869, the next on 1860, next 1850, then 1840, and the one above given—1830—was printed last.

The thirty eight years, (nearly, which have elapsed since the series was written) only accentuate the interesting record of persons and events running back nearly fifty years from 1879.

At that time, 1879, many of the persons referred to were still here. Now none are left that was of adult age in 1830.

BUSY SEASON IS PROMISED FOR LABOR

Considerable Public Work now in Contemplation

A well known contractor was remarking yesterday that the outlook for labor this year is unusually good. A great deal of street paving is to be done, lots of sidewalk to be laid and other lines are also promising.

The highway from this city to within a mile or two of Murrayville is to be improved in a manner similar to that leading to Chapin and in other ways the promise for employment is encouraging. The great hardship with which laborers and mechanics have to contend is the winter season when perforce so many lines of employment are unavoidably closed.

A contractor once remarked that he had tried working in the winter but he lost money at it. The cold was so uncomfortable that he had to have fires and the men spent so much time keeping from freezing that they were of far less use than in good weather. A good many farmers would hire first class men the year round though a good many more want to get men in busy times and let them go when work is done and so the hardship is for the men supplied with irregular employment.

FROM BATTLEFIELDS.

In the window of the clothing store of Myers Brothers are some interesting reminders of the dreadful war raging abroad. They are loaned by a large tailoring firm in Chicago. They were gathered from the battlefield where the German forces came nearest Paris in 1914.

The most conspicuous article of the collection is a coat worn by a German lieutenant colonel of the 77th Infantry and who was killed on Sept. the 14th. Other articles are a sheath for a spade used in digging trenches. A helmet of German Uhlan soldier tells a sad story for two holes, one opposite the other, show where the fatal ball entered the unfortunate man's head.

Other articles are a piece of tent holder, pieces of an exploded shell, a cylindrical basket intended to protect the head of a live shell, cover off a canteen, cap of a French infantryman and other articles.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD.

Charles J. Roberts, secretary of Urania Lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F., received word yesterday of the death of S. C. Follansbee at his home in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Death occurred on Feb. 3 and the funeral was held Feb. 5. Mr. Follansbee for many years was a resident of Jacksonville and was employed at Jacksonville State Hospital. When Dr. H. A. Gilman who was assistant superintendent under Dr. H. F. Carriel, was appointed superintendent of a new insane hospital at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, about 38 years ago, Mr. Follansbee went to that city where he has since resided. His brother, James Follansbee is still a resident of this city. Mr. Follansbee was a member of Urania Lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F.

VIRGINIA GIRL BRIDE OF YOUNG MILLIONAIRE

New York, Feb. 7.—The wedding of Miss Nancy K. Perkins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. Moncure Perkins, and Henry Field of Chicago, was celebrated today at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, in East Seventy-third street.

The marriage was celebrated in the drawing room of the Gibson home in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and intimate friends of the pair. Bishop Patrick J. Hays of St. Patrick's Cathedral performed the ceremony. It was a mixed marriage, Mr. Field being a Roman Catholic.

The bride entered the drawing room with her uncle, Charles Dana Gibson. She was attended by her cousin, Mrs. George B. Post, Jr., and Miss Flora Whitney. Marshall Field 3rd, brother of the bridegroom, was his best man. The ceremony throughout was attended with the utmost simplicity owing to the recent death of the bride's uncle.

The engagement and marriage of Miss Perkins and Mr. Field have attracted wide attention because of the beauty of the bride and the wealth of the young bridegroom, as well as the social prominence of both families.

The mother of the bride was the eldest of the Langhorne sisters of Virginia, all of whom have enjoyed international celebrity for their beauty. The second of the sisters is Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, wife of the noted artist. The third sister, at her second marriage, became Mrs. Waldorf Astor. The fourth married Reginald Brooks from whom she was divorced two years ago, and the fifth, Miss Nora Langhorne, married Paul Phipps, an architect of London. All have been portrayed by Charles Dana Gibson.

Mr. Field, the bridegroom, is one of the two grandsons of the late Marshall Field, multi-millionaire merchant of Chicago. With his brother he ultimately will come into possession of the bulk of the Marshall Field estate, which has been estimated to amount to nearly $200,000,000.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and just try it.—Adv.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK

Manufacturers, educators, labor leaders and noted economists from all parts of the Union will meet in Indianapolis on Feb. 21-22 to attend the tenth annual convention of the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education. The chief interest of the gathering centers around the State-wide survey which Indiana has been carrying on for the past year, and which will go down in history as the first state to make a complete vocational survey for the purpose of increasing the productive efficiency of its commonwealth. In city, town and rural districts, unusual questions have been asked about the training that workers can get on their jobs; about the extent and uses of apprenticeship; about part-time courses and evening schools; to what extent the industries may give special training which they do not provide and to what extent the schools can be a factor in providing that training. The answering of these questions will show Indiana the kind of vocational education the state needs and how it best can be given.

Prof. Frank W. Taussig, head of the department of economics at Harvard University, who has accepted the invitation of President Wilson to become a member of the National Tariff Commission and to serve as its chairman, is a native of St. Louis, and represents the older type of German-American, so numerous in that city, a type which had a striking record during the Civil war as advocates of and fighters for national unity. Sent to Harvard, he graduated with his bent for economics thoroughly developed. Supplementary study fitted him for an instructor's post on the topic at Harvard, and in 1886 he became a professor of economics at the university. The "Tariff History of the United States" published in 1888, at once established his standing, and later books on wages and capital, the principles of economics and inventors and money-makers have but added to his reputation at home and abroad. Prof. Taussig has been granted leave for a year and a half from Harvard to devote his time wholly to the commission, and takes up his new duties at Washington this week.

The governors of Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee, the three states whose borders meet at Cumberland Gap, Tenn., will deliver addresses of welcome to the notable men and women who are expected to attend the memorial celebration at Lincoln Memorial university, Feb. 10, 11 and 12. The exercises will commemorate not only the birthday of Lincoln but also the 20th anniversary of the founding of the university by Gen. O. C. Howard of Vermont. A wide range of subjects embracing the life of Lincoln and his views on social and political questions as they would apply to the problems of the present day will be discussed, and during the celebration a Lincoln National Patriotic League will be organized, having for its object the dissemination of the fundamental principles of Americanism among colleges, chautauquas, churches, schools and industries. Among the educators who have accepted the invitation of Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, the newly elected chancellor of the university, to be present at the ceremonies are the presidents of Bowdoin College, Wesleyan University, Georgetown University, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, University of Kentucky, University of South Carolina, Carthage College and Moore's Hill College; also several public leaders, governors, senators and captains of industry and finance.

Most interesting tales are told of the school conducted at Bolpur, India, by Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the great Hindu poet and winner of the Nobel Prize in literature, who recently completed a tour of lectures in the United States. The poet's American tour was for the special purpose of getting funds for his school, which is a semi-philanthropic enterprise, and it was very lucrative, great audiences having invariably greeted the distinguished visitor from the east. Sir Rabindranath may be a dreamer out of the east, but according to all accounts, the boys under his tuition have no time to dream in bed before school hours. They begin their day at half past four in the morning. But as the school is out of doors and they may climb in the trees to study if they choose, there is no marching in at the tap of a bell and staying imprisoned for several hours. There is never any closer confinement than that of a porch; classrooms with hard benches and rules and quiet and silence are unknown, and every boy is put on his honor as a gentleman. With all this, visitors to this remarkable school have had to admit that the pupils were practically and splendidly at work intellectually, and that remarkable results are being produced. The schools is now famous in two hemispheres, and European and American educators visit it in greater and greater numbers to study the wonderful methods of the poet-philosopher.

CARNIVAL CROWDS AT TAMPA.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 7.—Hotels and boarding houses are filled to overflowing with tourists and other visitors, who, during the remainder of this week, will share with the local population in the enjoyment of the pleasure and festivities attending Tampa's annual carnival celebration. The pageant of Ye Mystic Crab of Gasparilla, which organization is to make its annual invasion of the city tomorrow, promises to be the most brilliant in its history. The Gasparillas will come up the bay and river in a schooner flying the black flag of piracy, the members of the crew picturesquely attired in costumes of 150 years ago. The pirate chief, or king of the carnival, will be crowned at the grand ball tomorrow night, when his identity and that of the queen will be made known.

HERO OF THE LADY ELGIN DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Edward Spencer, First Student Life-Saver at Northwestern University Expires After Lingering Illness.

Burbank, Cal., Feb. 7.—Edward W. Spencer, first student life-saver at Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., who became known as the hero of the "Lady Elgin" by swimming seventeen times to a foundering steamer and bringing back as many survivors, died here early today after a lingering illness. He was eighty-one years old.

The Lady Elgin was wrecked off Winnetka, Ill., with the loss of 279 lives, September 8, 1860. Spencer was a freshman. Exhausted by cold and exertion, he collapsed on his seventeenth return and in his delirium repeated constantly: "Did I do my best?" The phrase became famous.

Spencer's constitution was so weakened that he was forced to abandon his studies for the ministry and leave the university. An honorary degree was conferred upon him ten years ago and the class of 1888 erected a tablet in his honor in the Northwestern University library. He never fully recovered his health and several years ago suffered a stroke of paralysis, which recurred ten days ago.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters.

TO OBSERVE FRED DOUGLASS CENTENARY

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Negro organizations in Washington, Baltimore and other cities throughout the country are preparing for a suitable observance during the next few days of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Frederick Douglass the noted negro leader and orator. Douglass was born on the eastern shore of Maryland, in February, 1817. He early escaped from servitude and found refuge in the North where, as a writer and lecturer, he attracted attention by his anti-slavery propaganda. In 1877 he was appointed by President Hayes U. S. marshal for the District of Columbia, and this appointment created a profound sensation, as he was the first negro in the history of the nation to be so honored. Subsequently he served for several years as U. S. minister to Hayti. His death occurred at his home near this city, Feb. 20, 1895.

WOULD BAR MOVING EXPAND FURNITURE

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 7.—A law penalizing the sale or removal of furniture, phonographs or other personal property bought on the installment plan and unpaid for, is advocated by the Minnesota Retail Furniture Dealers' association, which met in this city today for its twelfth annual convention. The furniture men declare they are defrauded out of large sums every year by unscrupulous customers. They demand that they be given the same measure of protection as now is given to the holder of a chattel mortgage.

WISCONSIN HARDWARE DEALERS

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 7.—The Wisconsin Retail Hardware Association, organized in Milwaukee twenty-one years ago, is celebrating its coming of age by holding one of the largest conventions in its history in this city. Leading representatives of the trade from all quarters of the state were on hand for the opening of the proceedings today. A large exhibition of hardware goods is being held in conjunction with the convention.

U-BOAT ACTIVITIES CAUSE WHEAT BREAK

Market Closes Unchanged at Same
as Previous Finish to 1 Cents
Lower—Corn and Oats Virtually Unchanged.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—Activities of German U-boats caused sharp breaks today in wheat values. The market closed unchanged at the same as yesterday's finish
to 1 cent lower with May at $1.08, to $1.10
and July at $1.06 to $1.07. Corn and oats showed virtually no change as compared with 4 hours before. The outcome in provisions was a setback of 7/16 to 1/2.

Barish leaders suggested that this country might still have a liberal carryover of old wheat on hand when first receipts of 1917 crop were available.
Storage of shipments to neutral countries appeared to be almost complete.

Word that the departure of many vessels from United States ports had been halted acted as a special handicap on the wheat bulls. Besides, the market was depressed by increasing railway freight charges and by chances of a big strike of switchmen. Crop damage reports from west of the Missouri river
tended to sustain the July and September options, but had no effect on the May delivery, which at one time showed a fall of 5/16 under yesterday's latest figure.

Corn showed much strength in the strength of wheat weakness and of advancement on the part of a prominent long.
Congestion and by a prominent long.
Some pessimism that ever and it was said rain now would be too late for any great benefit to result.

Oats merely reflected the action of corn.

Provisions were governed largely by the close of the hog market. Pork receiving ceased, and declines ensued when quotations at the yards had been forced to a lower level.

The upturning export outlook was also a bearish factor.

LIVESTOCK MARKETS.
Chicago, Feb. 7.—Hog prices weakened
today owing to lack of support from porkers. In the cattle trade, killers taking advantage of a special handicap on the number of arrivals was about normal,
reduced values on the less desirable offerings. There was no urgent call for sheep or lambs.

Obituary of Mrs. Rea.
Mary J. Johnson was born two miles west of Murrayville May 6, 1869. She was the oldest daughter of the Rev. Henry L. and Nancy J.
Johnson and a granddaughter of the Rev. Benjamin Johnson, the noted
pioneer preacher, whose five sons,
all ministers of the gospel, had much to do in shaping the early church affairs of this section of the state.

She was married on January 12, 1878, to James A. Rea and they made their home for the first eight years of their married life just east of Murrayville, after which they moved to their farm in the Zion neighborhood where they lived until
a few months ago, moving then to their present home in Murrayville.
Into this home were born seven children: Mrs. R. Y. Gibson of Jacksonville; Mrs. John Akers of Manchester; John, of Woodson; Mrs.
Penton Wright of Murrayville; Mrs.
Bryan Sheppard of Waverly; James
Henry of Arvilla, North Dakota;
and Beattie at home. She also leaves her husband and twelve grandchildren.

Mrs. Rea was converted to the Christian religion at the Zion M. E.
church in 1898 during a revival
conducted by the Rev. W. W. Drake.
She then became a member of the Zion church where she used her influence in a very forceful manner for the furtherance of her Master's work
until she was called away.

Naturally she was of a cheerful
disposition and had the rare faculty of brightening the hopes of all with whom she came in contact.
She was much given to domestic life and thus lived first for her family and sought to develop her children into the most useful men and women. As a Christian she was bold and fearless, having many of the noble traits of the Christian character that so definitely marked
her ancestors.

SOME SUGGESTIONS.
A gentleman remarked yesterday
that a quantity of pajamas had been bought for Russian officers and he wondered if the Russians were going to retire.

Another had heard that a hundred thousand pounds of Linburger cheese
had been bought for the German army which meant they were going to take the offensive.

Another innocent individual was about to take the car next to the engine on an excursion train when his friend suggested that the front car
was the most dangerous in case of an accident.

"Then why don't they take the front car?" was the quick retort.

KING AND QUEEN OPEN PARLIAMENT

London, Feb. 7.—Parliament was re-opened by the King and Queen

omitted because of conditions arising from the war. A procession of naval and military character was substituted. Immense throngs gathered in St. James' Park and in Whitehall to watch the procession pass. Other thousands surrounded the parliamentary buildings. His Majesty wore a field marshal's uniform. As the royal party passed,
the cheering was unusually hearty,
as it was the first opportunity the populace had had to express its gratitude over the firm stand taken by the King and his ministers in reply to the Kaiser's so-called peace
note.

It Works! Try It
Tells how to loosen a sore,
tender corn so it lifts
out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and
druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery
of a Cincinnati man, which is said
to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost
very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.—Adv.

DIAMONDS EDWARD. D. HEINL

Exposure is the most frequent cause of coughs,
colds and grippe. The penetrating dampness starts the chill,
the germ gets a foothold and
sneezing, sniffing and coughing
are the consequences.

When you notice that grippy, stuffed-up feeling take Dr. King's New Discovery and stop its progress. The pure balsams in this old reliable cough and cold remedy
soothe the sore throat, the antiseptic qualities cut the phlegm and kill the germ and the cold is quickly relieved.

Have a bottle handy for grippe, croup and bronchial cough. You'll like it. Your druggist has sold it for years.
